

Osteopathic Medicine for All

May 19 - 21, 2017

Friday: 1:00-5:00p, Saturday: 8:30a-5:30p and Sunday: 8:30a-3:30p

Ohio University Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine
Dublin, OH Campus

Course Description

This 3-day CME course is designed to provide DO and MD medical education faculty: Preceptors, Clinical Faculty, and Program Directors, with the opportunity to learn about:

- Osteopathic Philosophy and History
- Osteopathic Medical Practice
- Fundamentals of Structural Diagnosis
- Fundamentals of Osteopathic Manipulative Treatment
- Treating Common Problems Osteopathically and other treatment topics

Through a variety of presentations and demonstrations by HCOM OMM faculty and guest presenters, participants will learn, practice and strengthen their OMM skills and improve their understanding of osteopathic principles. The course will teach participants to increase the utilization of OMM/OPP in their personal practices or increase the utilization in Resident clinics. Participants will improve their skills of precepting trainees in OMM/OPP. Participants who complete the program will be better able to integrate OMM into their practices along with precepting and evaluating residents and students in applying those skills. Those experienced in OMM will have the opportunity to refine their skills and increase utilization along with the benefit of group discussion re: difficulties in practice or precepting. Required course textbook: Atlas of Osteopathic Techniques, 3rd edition, by Nicholas & Nicholas

Course Registration Deadline: May 5, 2017
